Silent Auction Rules and Reminders

Please be sure to get your Silent Auction Bid Number from the Registration Table.

Silent Auction Rules

- Items and packages in this Silent Auction Catalog are subject to change. Images are provided as a courtesy to our guests only and are not necessarily an accurate depiction of the quality of a given item. The National Museum does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of any description.
- Unless otherwise stated, all items and services are valid within one year from April 19, 2008. All services must be redeemed by the listed expiration date. The National Museum and the donor cannot extend the expiration date of any service.
- Read all auction package descriptions carefully as they list specific restrictions. Please be aware. If you would like to extend your stay, you must coordinate with the donor directly. Auction Coordinators do not make travel arrangements.
- All items are sold “as is”, are subject to availability, and have no cash redemption value. The National Museum is grateful to our donors, but is unable to endorse any product or service.
- The stated value of auction goods and services are good-faith estimates only and are not warranted for tax purposes. Please contact your tax advisor regarding the tax deductibility of purchases and contributions. Any amount over the stated market value of an item may be tax deductible.
- The National Museum is not responsible for lost or stolen certificates/vouchers.
- The National Museum assumes no responsibility should any of the donating establishments be unable to fulfill gift certificates.
- All sales are final. There are no exchanges, transfers, or refunds from the National Museum or the donor.

How to Participate in the Silent Auction

- The silent auction will begin promptly at 5:30 pm on Saturday, April 19, 2008.
- Guests are assigned a Bid Number to use during the silent auction. Your Bid Number will be given to you at the Registration Table.
- A Bid Sheet is displayed with each auction package and includes the package title, value, minimum opening bid amount, and bid increment. You may bid on as many items as you wish.
- To bid on a package, simply write your Bid Number, Name, Phone Number and Bid Amount on the appropriate Bid Sheet.
- Each Bid Sheet lists a Bid Increment, which is the minimum value by which the existing bid must be increased in order to constitute a higher value bid. All bids must be in even dollar amounts. Bids below opening minimum bids will be increased appropriately.
- The auction will close at approximately 7:00 pm. Serious bidders should stand next to auction bid sheets until an Auction Coordinator picks up the bid sheet. Not all bid sheets are picked up at the EXACT closing time. An Auction Official will certify the closing bids, and the highest valid bid will be declared the winner.
- In the event of a contested item, the last two individuals appearing on the bid sheet will participate in a sealed “bid off.” This “bid off” will be in written form and be administered by an Auction Official.
- Winners will be notified at their tables throughout the evening.

Payment & Pick Up

- Auction Coordinators will bring invoices to the winning bidders at their tables.
- State and local retail sales tax will be included in the final bid amount. Any other applicable taxes, licensing fees or other consumer-related charges on any item are the sole responsibility of the winning bidder.
- All items must be paid for and picked up by the end of the evening.
- Payments may be made with cash, check, Visa, Mastercard or American Express.

Items and certificates purchased at this auction were donated specifically to support educational programs at the National Museum and are intended for use by the purchaser. They cannot be resold.

Buy It Now

Bidders will have the opportunity to write their bid number and the pre-assigned bid amount in the BUY IT NOW box on the bid sheet. If no one 'Buys It Now' this is a regular auction item.

#4009 Mammoth Fly Fishing Trip July 19-21, 2008

Three-Night Stay in a Mammoth Condo and Fly Fishing Lessons for Two People with Expert Fly Fisherman, Mas Okui

This is a great opportunity for two people to be taught to dry fly fish by an expert! Winners should have some fly fishing experience, as this is not a beginner's lesson.

First, enjoy a three-night stay (July 19-21, 2008) at 1849 Condos at Mammoth Lakes. This two-bedroom suite sleeps six.

The lucky winners will have the opportunity to dry fly fish at Hot Creek (located near Mammoth Lakes) on July 20 and July 21. Mas Okui has created a unique method of casting and has designed a dozen or so patterns, which more times than not, catch the trout of Hot Creek.

Prior to the on-stream experience, two sessions of fly-casting will be offered, usually on a Saturday morning at Balboa Park in the San Fernando Valley. (Dates are subject to mutually agreeable times). At these sessions, gear will be inspected, casting techniques honed, and a briefing of what is in store for the Hot Creek experience.

Other dates in the High Sierras may be available, or winner may wish to provide lodging and transportation.

Donated by Mas Okui and Hal & Barbara Keimi

A baseball signed by Kazuo Matsui when he was with the Colorado Rockies. Package includes the August 2007 official 'Scorecard Magazine' of the Colorado Rockies with Kazuo Matsui featured on the cover. Also included are two official clubhouse baseball caps and a letter of authenticity. Kazuo "Kaz" Matsui is a Japanese Major League Baseball player. Matsui played for the Colorado Rockies during the 2007 season and is currently a switch-hitter for the Houston Astros, who plays second base and shortstop. Matsui was born on October 23, 1975 in Osaka, Japan. Matsui signed with the New York Mets on December 17, 2003, becoming the first ever Japanese infielder to sign with a MLB team. He played for the Colorado Rockies during the 2007 season. Kazuo Matsui graduated from the PL Academy Senior High School in Osaka, a nationally renown school for its baseball program. The only appearance Matsui made at the National High School Baseball Championship Tournament was in his second year at PL Academy. Though Matsui was considered as the PL Academy's starting ace pitcher, injuries limited him to playing only in the quarter-final game, where he allowed two runs during 2 2/3 innings.
