Presented by TOYOTA Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc.

Lexus has introduced the next generation of its trend-setting hybrid RX 450h luxury utility vehicle for 2010. Lexus inaugurated the luxury crossover category with the original RX 300 model in 1998 and introduced the first-ever luxury hybrid in 2005. More than one million Lexus RX models have been sold worldwide, making it the most successful luxury utility vehicle. The all-new RX 450h hybrid once again raises the bar for design, engineering, and luxury innovation in the segment. Find out more at www.lexus.com.
