#2 Namiki Nippon Art Origami Kabuto Fountain Pen

The Kabuto, or pinwheel, is a well-known origami shape in Japanese art. The design on this pen features a colorful May scene of pinwheels blowing in the breeze.

The Kabuto in the center is colored in rich purple hues, reminiscent of the early summer iris blossom in Japan.

Each of these pens exploits the Hira-maki-e technique, a process where very fine gold dust and pigment is sprinkled over wet urushi resin. The deep black lacquer background forms a base for these applied colors.

The straight-line graphics of folded paper lend themselves well to this hard-edged display of color and shape. The stylized wind, made up of silver curved lines and golden sprinkles, blows past the whirling kabuto. This is a pen to brighten the mood and heighten the spirits.

This pen comes with a 14K single tone nib. The precision of Namiki nibs is legend. They write smoothly and deliver a beautifully metered ink flow.

About Namiki Pens:

From a culture that has revered the art of writing for more than a thousand years comes instruments that celebrate both writing and art. Where traditional techniques and modern innovations are fully realized in writing instruments that bridge art and technology, poetry and science, yesterday, today and tomorrow.

For the Namiki Collections, skilled Japanese artisans use the finest materials to create a line of writing instruments that look beautiful and perform flawlessly. We introduce Maki-e lacquering, a centuries-old technique in which multi-layered patterns are drawn on the barrel and cap with urushi - sap from Japanese lacquer trees. The hand-painted designs richly interpret scenes of nature in precious metals and lavishly colored pigments.

Other products feature 18 karat gold, sterling silver, lacquer or celluloid finishes, executed in styles ranging from the enduring beauty of the Emperor Collection to the intricate designs of the Yukari Collection.

However, superior craftsmanship is just the beginning.

#2002 1998 Cosentino Winery Reserve Merlot, Napa Valley

One Magnum

Cosentino's flagship wine holds the distinction as being the first recognized American Meritage. Punch cap fermented and aged separately for 29 months in French oak barrels, they blend Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot and Petit Verdot just before bottling. Deep ruby in color, youthful with tart cherry and currants up front, polished in the middle with pomegranate that evolves into a long spicy finish. A bright balanced wine with structure and richness.

Donated by Terri O'Lear, Knock Out Productions, Inc.

Estimated Value: $150

#2003 2003 Sloan "Asterisk" Napa Valley Red

A three-bottle wooden case (never opened until tonight) of 2003 Asterisk Cabernet Sauvignon, made by Sloan Estate. The online price at Wally's in W. Los Angeles is $299.99 per bottle.

According to Robert Parker: "Talk about coming out with a Big Bang! Stuart Sloan, the Seattle businessman, has hit both gold and home runs with his extraordinary vineyard perched high on a hill above the renowned restaurant/hotel complex of Auberge du Soleil. A 60-acre estate only partially planted in vines, with David Abreu handling the viticulture and Martha Levy (wife of Harlan Estates' Bob Levy) making the wine, this is as impressive a new operation as I have ever witnessed." (12/05)

Donated by William Ouchi

Estimated Value: $900

#2004 2007 Prix Reserve Pinot Noir

One Case

This second block-designate release from this vineyard, shows why wine from these 30-plus-year-old vines are so great. It presents aromas of bright cherry, strawberry and honey while the drastically low yields they get from these vines produce a "New World" Pinot of mouth-filling cherry, spice, and zippy white pepper.

Donated by Terri O'Lear, Knock Out Productions, Inc.

Estimated Value: $500

#2005 2009 Wild Horse Pinot Noir

Three-Liter Bottle

The name Wild Horse is synonymous with incredible Pinot Noirs. Offering up vibrant aromas and flavors of cherry, pomegranate, cola, and Asian spices, our Pinot Noirs are consistently praised for their complexity. They are, without a doubt, the most food-friendly red wines we produce. This is their flagship wine!

Donated by Terri O'Lear, Knock Out Productions, Inc.

Estimated Value: $150

#2006 2004 Matriarch

A Six-Bottle Case in a Wooden Box

A six-bottle case of 2004 Matriarch in a wooden box that has never been opened until tonight.

This cabernet Sauvignon is from the vineyards collectively known as BOND. The wines are made by the same team that also makes the BOND wines as well as Harlan Estate and The Maiden. The site is regarded by many people as the finest in Napa.

93 Points: Robert M. Parker, Jr.'s The Wine Advocate (December 2007)

"I think the 2004 Matriarch is opulent and impressive. Dark ruby/purple, beautifully exotic and full-bodied, with notes of incense, toasty oak, blackberry, licorice, and chocolate espresso, the wine is round, fleshy, and succulent. Drink it over the next 12-15+ years."

Donated by William G. Ouchi

#2020 2008 Saintsbury Pinot Noir, Carneros

Winemaker's notes:

To achieve a style of wine we believe delivers varietal and regional integrity, we undertake a careful, methodical exercise in blending. In late winter, after all our lots have completed malolactic fermentation and have been resting in small French oak barrels, we begin the search for our "Carneros" bottling. In tasting through all our barreled Pinot Noir, we are above all looking for those lots that show the right balance of tannin and acid, coupled with fruit flavors that while rich, dark-red and complex, are not overblown. Our Carneros bottling delivers distinctive Pinot Noir character of black/sour cherry and spice in a vibrant and elegant wine.

Aromas of black cherry, black tea, forest floor; loamy, full mouth feel.

Grapes were selected from the finest Bordeaux variety vineyards in Sonoma County; 30% from Alexander Valley, 29% from Sonoma Valley, 26% from Knights Valley, and 15% from Dry Creek Valley to assemble a Cabernet Sauvignon that showcases Sonoma County. The Alexander Valley grapes highlight bright berry with back notes of dried herbs, while the Sonoma Valley fruit is from our home vineyard - the St. Jean Estate Vineyard, and brings black and dense mountain fruit to the blend. The Knights Valley fruit adds a firm mouthfeel and pronounced tannins and the Dry Creek Valley grapes tend toward dark, dense black cherry and berry fruit flavors with a rich mouthfeel.

For example, Shambala became the new home for Michael Jackson's two Bengal tigers, Sabu and Thriller, after he decided to close his zoo at his Neverland Valley Ranch in Los Olivos, California.

The animals are not wild and are human dependent for their needs. Shambala provides expert veterinarians for care. Carefully planned diets are supplied by Natural Balance Pet Foods.

Shambala Preserve is located in Acton, California, a desert community 10 miles southwest of Palmdale, off of State Route 14 and Sierra Highway.

#4017 Hydros 906-4 Mid Flex 7.5 Fly Rod

And Hydros III Titanium Reel

While dry flies are the consummate way to catch trout, we often need to go deep with weight and bigger flies to catch trout. The new Hydros 9 foot 6-weight gives you the strength and length to properly cast, mend and drift heavy nymphs and streamers, but because of the remarkable graphite technology eliminates the compromise in dry fly fishing.

This rod will do both beautifully and is the perfect rod for big rivers and streams where a variety of techniques are necessary. If ever there was a perfect rod for fishing a dry with a dropper, the Hydros 906 is it. Precise casts even at a distance and the ability to reach out and control your line for perfect drifts. The remarkable light weight and responsiveness still gives you the tippet protection and the joy of feeling the fish in the fight.
