How to Participate in the Silent Auction

- The silent auction will begin promptly at 5:00 pm on Saturday, May 2, 2015.
- Guests are assigned a Bid Number to use during the silent auction. Your Bid Number will be given to you at the Registration Table upon check in.
- A Bid Sheet is displayed with each auction package and includes the package title, value, minimum opening bid amount, and bid increment. You may bid on as many items as you wish.
- To bid on a package, simply write your Bid Number, Name and Bid Amount on the appropriate Bid Sheet.
- Each Bid Sheet lists a Bid Increment, which is the minimum value by which the existing bid must be increased in order to constitute a higher value bid. All bids must be in even dollar amounts. Bids below opening minimum bids will be increased appropriately.
- The auction will begin closing at approximately 6:45 p.m. Serious bidders should stand next to auction bid sheets until an Auction Coordinator picks up the bid sheet. - 2006 Cardwell Hill Cellars Reserve Estate Bottled Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley

- The Dallas Wine Competition, 2008: Gold

- 2007 Rodney Strong Reserve Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley

- 93/100 pts
- San Francisco Chronicle Wine Competition, 2010: Silver

- 2007 Mumm Napa Pinot Noir, Napa Valley: Medium-dark red in color with aromas of cherry and spice. Flavors of cherry, both ripe and tart, cranberry, red plum, black truffle, and cedar wood on the palate with just a hint of spice and earthiness on the finish. Pairs well with beef, pork, lamb, pizza.

- 2005 Artesa Limited Release Pinot Noir, Carneros: Most consumers will open this too soon and miss where it's going, but even now, in its extreme youth, it's satisfying. Bone dry and crisp, with an elegantly silky texture, it shows refined flavors of cherries, minerals, cola, olive tapenade, tea, and spices, and is a fine example of Carneros Pinot. But such are the tannins and acids that the wine will evolve through the next six years.

Wing Chan’s abstract photographic collages reflect his ability to create novel, dynamic compositions from the harsh geometries of urban landscape. His expressionism mystifies images of neglected architecture, commerce, and waste with a modern aesthetic that frees the content from its original utility to reveal extraordinary beauty and emotion.

Chan’s approach is to use photographs that “steal” the real texture and energy of the city, particularly neglected neighborhoods. Chan creates free compositions using these “neglected city images,” both as expanses and as enlarged elements. Using his digital canvas, Chan treats, distorts and edits the images to add or subtract details, colors, and aspects, including facets of gestural abstraction. Chan refers to this process as mystification of the reality because it creates an image that overtakes and goes beyond reality itself. His work employs digital graphics technology printed on silver metallic photographic paper.

Chan’s diverse body of work brings new definition to the relationship of technology and mass media imagery to traditional studio methods and formats. His work exemplifies the importance of how individual artistic sensibility and style can evolve to produce new definitions of spontaneous creativity.

The famous Herend fishnet décor adorning many of the animals took form in 1858 when a Herend painter became inspired by a fishscale design he saw on a Chinese porcelain plate and painted a similar pattern onto a rooster figurine to imitate feathers. 5039 SAKATA Vintage OBI Clutch

With Rhinestone Clasp

White/Silver metallic threading/lavender ombre clutch with rhinestone clasp.

Welcome to the world of the SAKATA Vintage “OBI” Clutches.

What does “OBI” mean? “OBI” is the sash or wide belt which is wrapped and worn around the waist of a kimono without the use of buckles. Obi’s were first worn in the 16th century by both men and women and were an important feature of kimono attire.

An Obi is made of silk, cotton or brocade and the color and print or design was very significant to the wearer. There are four types of Obi: Maru Obi, Fukuro Obi, Nagoya Obi, and the Hanababa Obi.

The MARU Obi tends to be made of the finest brocade and is the most formal and elegant, mainly worn by brides, geishas or modern day “maiko” (dancing lady). The obi has a pattern or design on both sides and is the most expensive.

The FUKURO Obi is similar to the Maru Obi, but has only a pattern or design on one side. It is used formally or informally and the patterned side is what is visible.

The NAGOYA Obi is asymmetrical in its length shape, as it is folded and stitched. It is mostly worn by young or unmarried women wearing semi-formal kimono.

The Hanababa “half width” Obi is half the width of an obi and is the most popular. It is the most easy to tie and make bows from and is worn with casual kimono or yukata.

The Obi that is used in making SAKATA Obi clutches are the Maru Obi and the Fukuro Obi. Each and every piece is carefully selected before purchasing. There is very little to no imperfections in the Obi clutches that are made, as each obi is cut by hand by the owner and designer herself, Cin Ishii.

Please enjoy these elegant, beautifully rich, LIMITED EDITION, handmade SAKATA Obi Clutches.
