

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

BID FOR EDUCATION

FREE TRANSPORTATION APPLICATION

The Japanese American National Museum's Bid for Education program covers group transportation costs of up to $350 per bus for Title I schools and organizations with demonstrated financial need.

Due to an overwhelming demand during the 2016-2017 school year, JANM's free transportation funds have already been allocated.

Applications for free transportation for the 2017-2018 school year will be accepted beginning on July 1, 2017. These funds will be available on a first come, first served basis to school and senior groups with demonstrated financial need. The required application form will be made available at this web address.

Thank you! If you have any questions, please contact groupvisits@janm.org.
